STOVES & PLUMBING

The program at the Orpheum today consists of a double bill. Robert Warwick and Frances Nelson are starred in "Human Driftwood," a drama of powerful theme laid in the far North, which depicts love, romance and adventure. The drama is in five acts and is played by an all star cast. The first chapter of the wonderful serial drama, "Mysteries of Myra," is Ina Claire will probably be seen in the leading role in "Please Help Emily," a London comedy to be given over here.

A villain of the polished type, with the heart of a wolf and a hero of manly appeal, make a brilliant contest for a typical American girl in "One of the Pack," produced by the the special added attraction. The entire play consists of fifteen episodes, every one of which is a complete story in itself. One will be shown every Monday at the Orpheum in connection with the regular feature attractions. Howard Estabrook and Jean Sothorn are in the leading roles, and are supported throughout the entire fifteen chapters by an all star cast of well known players. This is a masterfully acted story, and deals with spiritualism, hypnotism and other like subjects.

Valerie Bergere has received several offers from the big moving picture companies and will probably accept one. She will insist on appearing in her own scenarios, as she has a number of excellent ones. She will not, however, allow such an engagement to interfere with her regular vaudeville appearance.

The Bijou management is offering its patrons today a Triangle Fine Arts production, "Hoodoo Ann," produced by D. W. Griffith. Here is Mae Marsh in her first Triangle play, fully justifying her prediction of her eminent fitness to be starred in pictures. She has been provided with a typical Fine Arts story, a first rate supporting cast and superior direction. This picture will delight not merely adult patrons, but children as well. It has an universal appeal as any picture ever seen. Robert Herron is Miss Marsh's able first assistant, and is perfectly at home in his role. These two stars will be remembered for their excellent characterizations in Griffith's "Birth of a Nation." Others in the cast are William H. Brown, Wilbur Higby, Loyola O'Connor, Mildred Lee, Elma Lincoln and Robert Lawler.

Mack Swain with May Emory, Polly Moran and a typical Keystone cast in "By Stork Delivery" are also on this program and furnish many entirely new stunts in the comedy line. This program will also be shown Tuesday.

After its run in London, Raymond Hitchcock will appear on this side in his new musical comedy, "Mr. Manhattan."

Mary Pickford's Latest Photoplay is at Grand

It is "Poor Little Peppina," in Which She Essays New Characterization.

If there have ever been any doubts as to the versatility of Mary Pickford, the Famous Players Film Company's star will dispel them by her wonderful performance in that company's splendid production of Kate Jordan's "Poor Little Peppina." Following upon her last Paramount picture, "Madame Butterfly," in which she so perfectly characterizes the little Japanese girl, Miss Pickford in this production, which is the feature at the Robinson Grand to-

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes—with no sparkle.
Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.
Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients, for years.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.
They bring about that exuberance of spirits that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities. You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 15c and 25c per box. All druggists.
